The Impact of Johns Hopkins in the Seventh Congressional District

Johns Hopkins Facilities & Operations in the District

Johns Hopkins in the District

32,345  JH employees working in the congressional district
14,705  Congressional district residents employed by JH
$1B    In wages and salaries paid by JH to congressional district residents
$423M  Paid to congressional district-based suppliers and contractors
2,087  Congressional district residents enrolled at JH
$38.7M  Financial aid to students residing in the congressional district
661,359  Patient visits by congressional district residents to JH health care providers

Serving and employing Maryland residents

Many of The Johns Hopkins University’s and the Johns Hopkins Health System’s largest facilities - and about two-thirds of the University’s and the Health System’s Maryland employees - are concentrated in the Seventh Congressional District. Major operations located in the District include the University’s Homewood and East Baltimore campuses, The Johns Hopkins Hospital (Baltimore’s largest hospital) and Howard County General Hospital (the County’s only acute-care facility).