Sponsor: U.S. Department of State: Bureau of Population, Refugees & Migration

Program: FY 2016 Annual Program Statement Requesting Concept Notes for Global Innovation Programs to Help the Humanitarian Community Better Respond to Refugees Outside of Camps

Maximum Award Amount: $1,000,000 over 1 or 2 years

JHU Nomination Limit: 2

For more detailed information: PRM Grant Website & DoS Detailed FOA

The PRM seeks to support the development of new approaches and tools to strengthen humanitarian response to urban and other non-camp refugees globally. Although a number of new strategies have been identified in principle, and guidance and best practices are steadily accumulating, the international humanitarian community still struggles to put these tools into practice, systematically and coherently, in non-camp settings around the world. Additional tools and models of assistance need to be developed, tested, refined and adapted to help humanitarian actors respond effectively outside of camps. PRM is seeking the development and piloting of new tools and models of assistance that will enable the humanitarian community to address a range of challenges unique to urban/non-camp settings.

Eligibility & Requirements:

- Applicants must be faculty in an academic institution located in the United States.
- U.S. citizenship is not required for this award.

Internal Nomination Process:

Interested applicants should send the following documents in sequence in one PDF to resapp@jhu.edu no later than 4 p.m. on February 1, 2016:

1. JHU Limited Submission Cover Sheet
2. Abstract (one page, double-spaced)
3. Proposal (maximum of three pages of text only, single spaced: 12-pt font and one-inch margins)

   Submissions may be in any format. Concept notes must include the following categories:

   i. Brief problem statement identifying urban challenge to be addressed and any existing efforts globally to address the problem to date
   ii. Project description and objectives, clearly identifying innovative aspect of proposed project
   iii. Proposed methodology, locations and timeline
   iv. Brief discussion of plans to disseminate new tool and incorporate it into future work of the organization
   v. Summary of the organization(s), experience doing similar work, and description of how any partnership will be organized
   vi. Primary organizational point of contact
4. Curriculum Vitae of investigator, including current external research support and publications
5. Budget (one page maximum): Must include the following: Personnel allowances, Benefits, Travel, Program equipment, Supplies, Contractual, Construction, Other direct costs, Indirect costs & Total amount requested
6. Letters of Recommendation from the Department Chair/Director: Letters of Recommendation can be submitted separately to resapp@jhu.edu stating your name in the subject line.

Each applicant should expect to receive a confirmation of receipt of their materials. If an applicant does not receive an acknowledgement, or has any questions, please contact resapp@jhu.edu.