Summer Stipends support individuals pursuing advanced research that is of value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both. Recipients usually produce articles, monographs, books, digital materials, archaeological site reports, translations, editions, or other scholarly resources. Summer Stipends support continuous full-time work on a humanities project for a period of two consecutive months.

Eligibility & Requirements:

- The Summer Stipends program accepts applications only from individual researchers, teachers, and writers, whether they have an institutional affiliation or not.
- All applicants must have completed their formal education by the application deadline. While applicants need not have advanced degrees, individuals currently enrolled in a degree-granting program are ineligible to apply.
- U.S. citizenship is not required for this award. Foreign nationals living in the U.S. or its jurisdictions for at least the three years immediately preceding the application deadline are also eligible.
- Individuals who have either held or been awarded a major fellowship or research grant or its equivalent within the three academic years prior to the deadline are ineligible.
