

FINANCE CLUB

JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

Carey Business School

The Carey Business School Finance Club

launches its

Finance Industry Luncheon Speaker Series

U.S. Economy Financial Crisis

By Dr. Randall Dodd

Randall Dodd is a Senior Financial Sector Expert at the IMF. He also teaches financial market regulation for the Carey Business School at Johns Hopkins University and financing for development at the Maxwell School of Syracuse University. Previously, he founded and served as the director of the Financial Policy Forum in Washington, D.C. Before that he was at the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) as an economist and special advisor to the Commission. Prior to the CFTC, he served the U.S. Congress as a senior economist for the Joint Economic Committee and the Democratic Study Group, and he was the Legislative Director for Congressman Joe Kennedy. He also has taught economics, finance and political philosophy at Columbia University, Rutgers University, University of Maryland, and American University. He received his PhD in economics from Columbia University.

Friday • March 21st • 12:00pm – 1:00pm

Carey Business School DC Center
1625 Massachusetts Avenue, NW – Room 211
Washington, DC 20036

*The purpose of the Finance Industry Luncheon Series is to provide members with the opportunity to meet and interact with industry leaders in intimate luncheon meetings. Attendance is limited to 12.

There is a $10 fee to cover the cost of the lunch.

To RSVP click here financeclub@jhu.edu and send an e-mail with your name and phone number. Then mail a $10 check to the address below by Tue, Mar 18.

Make the check to "Carey Business School Finance Club" and write "Luncheon" and your phone number in the memo line. If you prefer to pay by cash, place the cash with a note with your name and e-mail address in an envelope and deliver it in person to the address below.

Attn: Carey Business School Finance Club
1625 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Suite 100
Washington, DC 20036