High School Video Face

Lauren Embree

MARCO ISLAND, FLA. > Tennis

Lauren, a Lely High senior, is ranked No. 2 in the U.S. after winning USTA's 18-and-under National Open and National Clay Court championships and the $10,000 Via Christi Pro Tennis Classic. (As an amateur she received only expenses.) She has won nine national titles.

Zach Wentz

BISMARCK, N.D. > Baseball

Wentz, a freshman first baseman and pitcher at North Dakota State, hit .507 and had a slugging percentage of .903, with 15 doubles, 12 homers, 67 RBIs and 66 runs scored, for his American Legion team, the Bismarck Governors. At Century High he was all-state three times and threw two perfect games.

Chris Baldwin

SOUTHAMPTON, N.J. > Football

Baldwin, a senior safety at Johns Hopkins, scored three defensive touchdowns in the Blue Jays' 34-3 victory over St. Lawrence, returning two interceptions 28 and 45 yards and a fumble 32 yards; two of the scores came on consecutive plays from scrimmage. He also had 10 tackles and forced a fumble.

Stephanie Anderson

COATESVILLE, PA. > Soccer

Anderson, a freshman forward at Lincoln, scored a school-record five goals in her college debut and six days later scored a hat trick, giving her a Lincoln season-record eight goals after just three games. She was named Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference Division II offensive player of the week.
