Carey Business School

Investment Banking Boot Camp

The Carey Business School Finance Club and Professional Career Services will host Wall Street Prep's financial training seminars at Johns Hopkins University on the weekend of April 5-6, 2008. These intensive weekend seminar is led by former investment bankers with applied expertise in financial and valuation modeling methodologies, and bridges the gap between academics and the real world. Students will learn practical financial skills that are highly sought by employers.

Who Should Attend?

Students interested in careers in investment banking, corporate finance, private equity, asset management, business development, capital markets, equity & credit research, and sales & trading.

Why Attend?

- Gain technical knowledge needed during the interview process
- Supplement academic theory with real-life applications
- Obtain hands-on practical financial skills needed on the job
- Simulate what finance professionals do on a daily basis

When?

- Saturday, April 5, 2008 (9am-5pm): Financial Statements Modeling in Excel
http://web.jhu.edu/financeclub/Docs/WSP-Financial_Stat_Modeling.pdf
- Saturday, April 6, 2008 (9am-5pm): Valuation/Discounted Cash Flow (DCF) Modeling
