FALL 2016 TUITION IS DUE BEFORE AUGUST 27, 2016

You can view the Teacher Course Evaluations at http://web.jhu.edu/registrar/students/evaluations/. These course evaluations are written summaries, prepared by undergraduate volunteers and reviewed by undergraduate editors. It is suggested that you use these Teacher Course Evaluations as a reference tool prior to seeing your advisor and planning your Fall 2016 course schedule.

Prohibition on Registering for Courses that Meet at the Same Time

Registering for two classes that meet at the same time or overlapping times is not permitted except as a temporary measure during the first weeks of the semester when students are still deciding on which classes to take. By the end of the first two weeks of classes, students must address time conflicts in their schedules. [Policy located at http://e-catalog.jhu.edu/undergrad-students/academic-policies/registration-policies/#restrictiontext]

REGISTRATION PREPARATION—complete all of the following prior to Monday, April 4th

1. Check ISIS for Students to see if you have holds. If you see the word “Alerts” in red above the toolbar, click to see what is required to release the hold(s). Once you have completed what is required, the alert disappears the next time you log back into ISIS for Students.

2. If needed, update your biographical and address information (under Personal Info/Summary)
3. If needed, fill in emergency contact and family info (under Personal Info)
4. Arts & Sciences Students: No action is required! The Advisor Hold has been released. You will have access to register in ISIS for Students according to the schedule above. As per Lori Citti, you must meet with your advisor when you return to campus.
5. Engineering Students: You must email your course selection to your faculty advisor and request that your Advisor Alert be released. As long as your Advisor Alert has been released, you will have access to register in ISIS for Students according to the schedule above. If you are unable to locate an email address for your faculty advisor, please send a message to the Office of Engineering Advising at wseadvising@jhu.edu. You should also plan to meet with your faculty advisor when you return to campus.
6. The myLearning “Lab Safety Tutorial” (required for enrollment in all lab courses) has a 4:30 AM—7:30 AM maintenance period wherein updates cannot be processed into ISIS. Please complete the Lab Safety Tutorial in advance of registration for your class, but no later than 3:30 AM on the day of registration.
