This summer improve your Portuguese language skills in an intensive program and learn about Brazilian culture in the exhilarating metropolis of Rio de Janeiro! The program is based at IBEU in the beautiful area of Copacabana Beach. Students will have Portuguese language class every morning. Afternoons will be filled with cultural lectures, course-related field trips, and other cultural activities to provide opportunities for students to strengthen their language skills and deepen their understanding of Brazilian language, history, and culture. Students will also visit two important historic cities in the State of Rio de Janeiro, Petropolis and Paraty.
